Inference:

1. Debate is a social way of expressing point of view on a topic. And it teaches students how to accept different point of views of theirs and others in the same topic. They learn agree to disagree, may find a way to solve an issue, learn how to compromise with others.
2. It assesses students understanding and thorough practice of C/C++ programming language.
3. General Awareness Test assesses students understanding about general awareness.
4. In a word association test, Series of words are presented to individual respondents. For each word, participants are instructed to respond with the first word (i.e., associate) that comes to mind. Such responses provided clues to peoples' personalities (free association).
